Route 1A Verification of Current Student Status

For Online Applications in Schools that are not NCCT Test Sites

Directions: Only qualified current students from eligible (i.e., validated) educational programs have the option to challenge NCCT certification examinations prior to graduation. Applicants from eligible programs that do not serve as NCCT test sites will need to download and print this form, provide the applicant information at the top, and ask their Program Director to complete the requested information in the box below. Signature by the Program Director is required.

Applicants can upload the completed form through their NCCT user account after they complete online application form, or they may return the paper form to NCCT by email, fax, or mail. Contact information is provided above.
